Aldersons in British Columbia

by Jim Cross

In the December 1996 issue of Alderson Roots & Branches I summarized what is known about early Alderson immigrants to Canada. All of those immigrants came to the province of Ontario, although a few descendants moved west to Manitoba. The province of British Columbia has made its death and pre-1915 marriage index available on the Internet. A professional researcher in Victoria has looked up the records for me and as a result I can now present a picture of the Alderson immigrants to that province, most of whom came directly from England to British Columbia.

One of the most interesting immigrants was Frederick Alderson. His story was the subject of a major article in the June issue of the Alderson Family History Society (UK) newsletter. Frederick's family never actually emigrated to Canada. Frederick and his brother were orphaned as young men, but Frederick eventually became a mining engineer. He worked in mines in various parts of the world including a tour of duty in India. He came to Mexico in 1907 with the intention of buying a mine, but the enterprise eventually went bankrupt and he traveled to British Columbia where he found employment with the Hosmer mine near Fernie, BC. In 1912 an explosion in the mine trapped a number of men. Using newly developed breathing apparatus Frederick entered the mine and saved a number of the trapped miners, but eventually succumbed to the mine gases. Frederick's brother Robert Dunn Alderson emigrated to Canada in 1903 and came to British Columbia in 1912, the year of his brother's death. He was instrumental in erecting a monument in his brother's memory. Robert married Jeannie McKenzie. He moved to Creston, BC in 1925 where he became a fruit farmer. He died in Creston in 1950. His son Douglas McKenzie Alderson was born in Fernie, BC on 29 June 1917. He married Dorothy McGilvry. The couple were later divorced. Douglas died 3 July 1964 in Campbell River, BC in an auto accident and is buried in Courtenay, BC. The informant on his death certificate was a brother Fred Alderson.

Jonathan Alderson was born in England 16 April 1869. He emigrated to British Columbia in 1889, settling in Victoria. He is the first Alderson thus far recorded in the province. He married Margaret James. He was employed as a printer. He died in Victoria, BC on 15 April 1944 and is buried in Royal Oak Burial Park. His widow Margaret died 7 August 1958 in Victoria and is buried in Ross Bay Cemetery.

Arthur Alderson was born in England in 1884. It is not known when he emigrated to Canada. His death certificate shows he was married, but the name of his wife is unknown. In March 1915 he developed mental illness and was committed to a public hospital in New Westminister, BC. He died there on 27 November 1915.

Christopher Alderson, son of Thomas, was born in England on 16 December 1863. He emigrated to Canada in 1889 and moved to Vancouver, BC ca 1911 where he was employed as a janitor. He died on 2 May 1918. Mrs. Ethel Symington, who may have been a married daughter, was the informant for completion of his death certificate.

George Collingwood Alderson, son of John Alderson and Anna Shillington, was born in England 13 February 1869. He married Ellen J. Maltby, daughter of John Henry Maltby and Jane Card. Ellen was born in Croyden, England on 9 April 1875. The family emigrated to Canada in 1911 settling in Vancouver, BC where George was employed as an upholsterer. He died in Vancouver on 19 January 1917 and was buried in South Vancouver. His widow died in Saanich, BC on 7 January 1952 and was buried in Mountain View Cemetery in Vancouver. The informant on her death certificate was a daughter, Mrs. E. M. Ward. A son John Maltby Alderson was born in England on 31 October 1902. He married Rose Sylvia Paterson. John was a railway district passenger agent. He died on 5 June 1966 in Vancouver, BC and is buried in the Masonic cemetery in Burnaby, BC. His widow Rose S. died in Vancouver, BC on 19 January 1976. She was born 22 May 1907 in Coleman, Alberta to Adam Paterson and Catherine J. Churchill. The informant on her death certificate was a daughter, Mrs. Patricia Campbell.

Henry Spencer Alderson, son of Frederick Cecil Alderson and Catherine Guest, was born in England on 3 August 1874. He emigrated to Canada in 1911 settling in BC. He married Julia Charlotte W. Moeser. He moved to Duncan, BC ca 1925 where he worked as a civil engineer. He died there 8 March 1948 and is buried in St. Peter's Quamischan.

Ralph Alderson was born in Reeth, North Yorkshire on 16 November 1866. His father's name is not given on his death certificate, but his mother's maiden name was Mary Marrick. He emigrated to Canada in 1881 with his parents, but did not move to British Columbia until ca 1946. He worked as a farmer and as an agent for a farm equipment company. He died in Cranbrook, BC on 29 November 1956 at the age of 90 and was buried in Westlawn Cemetery. The informant on his death certificate was a stepdaughter, Margaret Chorley.

Thomas Alderson was born in England and married Margaret Buxton, daughter of Christopher Buxton (the name is spelled Butson on some records). There is no evidence that Thomas emigrated to Canada, but Margaret emigrated with at least six children in 1912 and settled in Vancouver, BC. She died there on 15 April 1925 and is buried in Mountain View Cemetery. An unmarried daughter Elizabeth Alice, born 2 January 1880 in England, died in Vancouver on 3 March 1913. An unmarried son Thomas, born 3 August 1870 in England, died 26 July 1930. He had been a conductor on the BC Electric Railway. An unmarried daughter Mary Ann, born 3 September 1861 in England, died 1 February 1934. An unmarried daughter Tamar, born in England 22 March 1868 died 3 September 1948 in Vancouver. Informants on the death certificates included two additional daughters, Amy and Mrs. Margaret Griffin. All of the family members are buried in Mountain View Cemetery.

William Alderson was born in England on 7 February 1858 to John Alderson and Sarah Waters. He emigrated to Canada ca 1883 and moved to BC ca 1920. He died in Vancouver, BC on 17 December 1927 and was buried in Ocean View Burial Park. The informant on his death certificate was a stepson, E. J. Rothwell.

William Henry Alderson was born in County Durham, England on 1 October 1901, son of Jonathan Alderson and Mary Embleton. He emigrated to Canada in 1922 and married Margaret Kozak. He moved to Vancouver, BC ca 1937 and was employed as a building contractor. His wife Margaret committed suicide 3 June 1966. William Henry died 5 December 1972 in Vancouver. The informant on both death certificates was a daughter Mrs. Thelma Ratner.

George Alderson, was born in Ontario on 19 Dec 1862, son of William Alderson and Margaret Pickering. He married Harriett Costello on 2 August 1885 in Halton Co., Ontario. The family moved to British Columbia in 1892. George was a farmer. He died in New Westminster, BC on 18 May 1923 and was buried there.

William Edwin Alderson was born in St. Thomas, Ontario 25 Jun 1887, son of Ralph Alderson and Hanna Wright. He married his first wife, Nine E. McGraw in Oxford Co., Ontario on 26 October 1909. He later married a widow, Harriett Perkins, née Evans. William was a carpenter and moved to Summerland, BC after retiring in 1951. He died in there on 22 May 1958 and is buried in Peach Orchard cemetery. The informant on his death certificate was a son-in-law, Colin Campbell. His widow Harriett died in West Summerland, BC on 14 June 1961 and is buried in the same place. The informant on her certificate was a daughter, Margaret Campbell.

Robert Leroy Alderson, was son of Robert Land Alderson and Clarissa Brown. He was born in Ontario on 22 April 1876. He moved to BC ca 1915 and settled in Cariboo, BC where he was a farmer. His wife's name was Nena Violet Alderson. He died in McBride, BC on 23 June 1926 and is buried there.

Jonas Peter Alderson was born in Sweden on 24 October 1856. His father's name is shown on his death certificate as Anderson Abershamson. It is not known when Jonas took the name Alderson. He was married and a retired farmer who emigrated in 1912 and settled in Vancouver, BC, where he died 23 January 1925 and was buried in Mountain View Cemetery. The informant on his death certificate was a son-in-law, Carl Erikson.

There are a number of additional death certificates in the province for immigrants not known to have married and for unidentified widows.

Morgan County, Indiana Original Land Sales from the US Government: Moses Alderson

This site² provides an index to the original land sales to early Morgan County settlers from the U.S. Government, sorted by name. It also includes a companion file sorted by location, to allow you to look up the legal description and determine neighbors of the settler.

One early purchaser of Morgan Co. Land was Moses Alderson. The index entry for Moses notes the sale was dated 15 November 1822, for 80 acres in 14 1E 26 E half of SE half 80.

Moses also patented land in Morgan and Hendricks Cos., IN in 1824. (See next article.)

Alderson Land Patents

The following table contains a full listing of all Alderson land patents available on the web site of the Bureau of Land Management, Eastern States, General Land Office Records. This site provides live database and image access to more than two million federal land title records for the Eastern Public Land States, dating back to 1820, and in some instances earlier. It does not yet include the patents from the eastern public lands states of Iowa and Illinois.

The patent documents identify the range coordinates of the land and size in acres, and the location of the land office from which the patent was issued. They do not indicate the county in which the patented land was located, but the Land Office web site helpfully provides this information in a more detailed index page from which the original document can be accessed.

Prior to the Homestead Act of 1862, which offered millions of acres of federal land for sale to homesteaders, most of the patents were issued for cash sales under "An act making further provision for the sale of Public land" passed by Congress in April 1820. Homestead patent documents did not include the residence of the buyers, so most post-1862 entries do not contain this information. Post-1862 entries with this information were cash-sales patents.

Among the Alderson entries, the earliest was from April 1805, when President Thomas Jefferson personally signed a patent granting 100 acres of land in what was to become Morrow Co, OH, to Simon Alderson, "a soldier in the late army of the United States, in consideration of his military services" (see figure). It is interesting to see that the enabling legislation for granting these lands was a 1796 act "regulating the grants of Land appropriated for Military service, and for the Society of the United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the Heathen."

According to Jim Cross, this Simon is most likely Simon Alderson of NC, born probably around 1756, a sergeant who served seven years in the war and was a prisoner of war taken to England. Simon received a large grant in North Carolina, but this is the first evidence of a grant in Ohio. Simon was enumerated in the censuses of Hyde Co, NC in 1790, 1800, and 1810. Another Simon Alderson also served in the Revolutionary War, but less is known about him. This Simon was much older, served as a Captain for a year and then resigned his commission due to ill health. Jim Cross thinks that Capt. Simon may be the uncle of Sgt. Simon Alderson.

It is not known if Simon Alderson took up residence in Ohio after exercising his land grant, and Sgt. Simon Alderson was recorded in Hyde Co, NC in 1810. Jim Cross records no Alderson families in Ohio in 1820, but two Alderson families appear in 1830. These were the families of Richard Alderson of Ross Co., OH and Solomon Alderson of Montgomery Co., OH, whose ancestries are unidentified. Perhaps they were the sons of Simon?

The recording of the buyer's residence on cash-sales patents helps to pinpoint the time of emigration, as in the case of Benjamin Amos Alderson, who is shown as first buying land in St. Charles Co., MO in September 1838 (see figure). His residence was listed as "Harford Co, MD". Benjamin was the son of Abel Alderson of Harford Co; Abel was the only child of Thomas Alderson who did not accompany him to Greenbrier Co, VA after the Revolutionary War, remaining in Harford Co., MD with his grandfather Benjamin Amos (d. 1815) and great-grandfather, the Rev. John Davis (d. 1809).

Benjamin Amos Alderson doesn't appear to have taken up residence in Missouri at the time of his purchase, as just a few months later in 1838, he was in Adams Co, MS where he was married to Matilda Margaret Farrar "of the state of Mississippi". Benjamin was enumerated in Adams Co., MS in the 1840 census as well. Benjamin patented a total of over 800 acres in St. Charles Co., MO, including 125 acres located on an island in the Mississippi River. Benjamin and Matilda relocated to his Missouri lands sometime after 1840, as Matilda died there on 4 March 1847. Left with a 7 year-old daughter, Benjamin remarried in December 1847 to Mary Lisle Baker, who was born in 1821 in Culpeper Co., VA, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Gamble) Baker. Two years later in December 1849, Benjamin patented an additional 77 acres, this time in Adams Co., MS in partnership with William Helm. Benjamin and Mary stayed in St. Charles, however, where Mary died in 1893 and Benjamin in 1895.

Other details of historical interest can be found in the files. In August 1849, Bathus Chinn Alderson, of Union Co, AR, patented 120 acres in what was Choctaw land in Arkansas as assignee of a Choctaw Indian (see figure). The Choctaw had agreed to remove to what was to become Arkansas and Oklahoma from their original lands in Mississippi as a result of the Treaty of Dancing Rabbit Creek in 1830. Many were issued certificates for public land, but owing to poverty or other situations, the Choctaw often reassigned these certificates, in the same way that military land warrants were reassigned. Bathus obtained two tracts of land of 120 acres total in this manner.

Bathus Chinn Alderson was born ca 1812 in Richmond Co., VA, son of Capt. William G. and Ann P. (Tapscott) Alderson. William G. moved to Maury Co., TN sometime before 1830, and there Bathus married Isabella J. Craig on 1 October 1835. Bathus was enumerated in Maury Co, TN in 1840, when he married his second wife Sarah J. Vanhook. Bathus was enumerated in Union Co, AR in 1850, 1860, 1870, and 1880. He married his third wife, (Mrs.) Martha J. Stanley on 8 October 1863 in Union Co, AR.

From this opening page, you are required to enter a zip code "for demographic purposes only" to proceed to the main search page. The main search page prompts you to choose a state, which is required for a surname search; if you have the accession number, it can be searched directly. There is a summary search result page, and the image files of each patent is accessible from the individual pages detailing each patent. The image files are on average 80-100k in size, so download times may be long. They can be either saved to disk or opened in your browser if your browser support .tif viewing.

Editor's Corner

This has now become the most erratic year since the newsletter began publication. This issue is now two behind schedule, and I apologize to all those who have been inconvenienced by my slipping schedule. I will continue to compile and publish the newsletter and will attempt to catch up to schedule; I hope the newsletter is useful enough that you will maintain your patience with me. I certainly have enjoyed all the support you have provided over the years!

I have also been putting more effort into the Alderson web site, in hopes of making it a top-class source for Alderson research. I know that many do not have online access, and I will try to accommodate request for information online to those who have no access. For example, in this issue I have posted an index to the land patents available from the Bureau of Land Management. For those without online access to the records, I would be happy to send a copy of up to three patents to those who provide a self-addressed, stamped envelope with the name, date and accession number of the patent.

The next issue of the newsletter will begin volume 9 (Spring 1998). Most subscriptions will come due then. Please don't send payments for the newsletter until notice is sent out for renewal; that makes it easier for me to take care of it all at once.

Thank you for sustaining this newsletter for eight years now, and, as always, I welcome any contributions readers would like to see published.

The Alderson Family History Society is a British organization devoted to the study of the Alderson family history. Though primarily oriented to family lines in Britain, the membership includes Americans and undertakes research on American and other lines of interest. The Society publishes a newsletter—appearing in February, June, and October—which presents family histories and biographies, research guides and results, organizational news and projects, queries, and other interesting and useful material.
